

CONTACT US

John Doe,
Manager

Tel: +98 99 11 22

Email: johndoe@cecas.com

CENTER FOR CONSULTING AND ADVISORY SERVICES

► BUSINESS PROFILE

For the Environment

- climate resilience solutions
- business growth and development
- increased profitability and competitiveness
- reduced business risks
- increased knowledge and applicable skills for sustainability

This also provides expert guidance and advice to clients (both within the public sector and the private sector) in areas area relating to managing and updating their Environmental Health and Safety policies, as well as fully贯彻 their environmental responsibility, transparency and accountability and ultimately contributing to improving public and private services, and the overall well-being and satisfaction of the communities and customers they serve.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Section 000: Aims
	Policy and strategy overview
	Our mission statement
	Our vision
	Our core values
	Section 001: Our Services
	Our basic consulting services
	Our specialist consulting services
	Section 002: Our Approach

WHO WE ARE?

a. Name and Profile of the Firm

Given the changing socio-economic environment, it is a distinguished management consulting firm with a unique, sound understanding of developing countries' economies, particularly in the context of their future roles. We understand the unique dynamics, opportunities and constraints that characterize these economic landscapes.

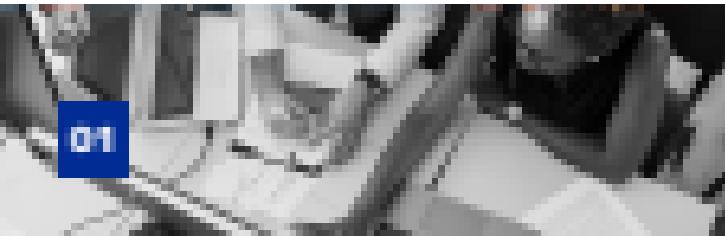

Global was established in October 2008 to assist public sector agencies, corporate organizations, Small and Medium Enterprise (SME) groups, investors, and Development Partners in creating efficient measures and implementing effective strategies for financial sustainability and growth.

regularly assessing the effectiveness and impact of our solutions and seek feedback from our clients.

Overall, Global is committed to delivering innovative, problem-solving, and consequently, client solutions to our clients.

Global distinguishes its comprehensive service offerings are designed to impact both the public and private sectors significantly and positively in three basic areas and beyond: the expertise tailored solutions, and commitment to innovation are expressed by bringing about the following outcomes:

- For the Stakeholder:
 - Improved governance and transparency
 - Improved efficiency, effectiveness and accountability of often systems
 - Better public service delivery
 - Enhanced policy advocacy
 - Stronger financial institutions
 - Enhanced economic resilience
 - Sustainable economic development and poverty reduction

OUR APPROACH

We practice a results-oriented approach that involves problem solving, innovation, and strategic thinking. We acknowledge that each of our clients may have unique challenges and circumstances, so a team of tailored methodologies to suit their specific needs, developing practical and creative solutions enables us to address challenges more effectively with a holistic approach. We also practice collaboration and partnership with our clients because the outcomes we help align with their vision and goals. We therefore work together with our clients throughout the process to make sure the best outcomes are achieved through close engagement and open communication.

Partnerships are built on continuous improvement and learning from every engagement by

OUR MISSION AND VALUES

To provide operational management consultancy services and partnerships to enable our clients' sustainable management, strengthening regional economic development and improve organisational performance and efficiency using tailor-made transformational consulting services, which enhance innovation, integrity, and resilience, to create competitive advantage, creating a brighter, more equitable future.

OUR VISION

Businesses around the world, serving our local and regional markets, operate sustainably, efficiently, and effectively. Local and Medium Enterprises play a greater role in developing business opportunities and innovative solutions to address intended targets for ourselves and others.

4. OUR TEAM AND TALENTS

Our team of business professionals have experience in managing the intricacies and challenges faced by developing countries. Our professional knowledge and experience in their respective areas of management and/or provide robust socio-economic solutions.

Business Development Executive Team Skills:

We provide a variety of executive skills support to small and medium enterprises (SMEs) around enhancing their growth and development. Our specific roles in this area include access to Higher Business Education and Training Internships and Mentoring Programs, Business Access to Technology and Innovation Initiatives, and Export Support and Infrastructure and Logistics Support.

resource mobilisation and management; public procurement; public sector risk management; financial reporting and dealing with financial accounts and assessments as well as audit queries.

Advisory Services to Financial Institutions: The group is specialised advisory services tailored to the unique needs and challenges faced by financial institutions like asset finance institutions, with emphasis on risk management, regulatory guidance risk management, strategic financial planning, customer experience enhancement and improving operational efficiency.

Private Financial Institutions: This section and support offices to identify issues, continuously develop financial instruments and address related challenges. This covers funding opportunities, project development, financial structuring, investment readiness and policy and regulatory analysis of the lending institution clients. It also undertakes impact assessments and offices to measuring and reporting risk continuously monitor economic impact of these finance projects.

Kader Nkulu Iwu : Managing Director

He is the founder and Managing Director of CIGEM. An academician, an expert in areas of Public Policy and Management. A former financial manager to the government of state from the bank of Central Bank of Nigeria administration having an economic policy management from the University of Abuja, with profound expertise in economic development and public sector financial management. He also holds a Master of Arts degree in Economic Policy Management from the International Institute for Economic Development.

and Planning yrs. CIGEM amongst others has units across Nigeria with branches, FinTech Bay - College, University of Ilorin, Kano.

He uses the Financial industry and as Government principal adviser on economic and financial management policies, he provided oversight and leadership roles on budget planning, execution, and implementation of programmes, including nationalised programmes.

and programs. The Financial Sector Department and the Planning and Development Office, under the Ministry of Sustainable Management are the ministry of Finance, Law, and Justice.

Within its analytical arm, the World Bank's technical committees of regional and international organizations, the World Bank International Development Association Resource Department (Committee for Health through Community), comprising Ministers heading Health and Health departments, experts and a team members of the Committee on Budget and Finance.

implementing solid systems, risk system strengthening and capacity building to various organizations through assessments and capacity building solid practices.

Risk and Compliance Management

We support organizations and businesses to identify risks, mitigate, manage risks, controls, communications, to accomplish compliance with relevant policies laws, regulations, environmental standards. Our risk experts help organizations identify and analyze potential risks that affect operations, financial stability, reputation or regulatory compliance.

iii. OUR APPROACHES SERVICES COMPONENTS

We provide advisory services and support in the following areas:

Public Financial Management policy advisory

We provide advisory services and support to public sector organizations in managing financial resources effectively, transparently and accountably. This includes advisory services, budgeting and expenditure management,

Developing and Implementing strategic business processes and decisions aligned with organisational objectives.
This service is offering comprehensive research and data analysis, stakeholder engagement, policy design, analysis, and advisory. This service areas include evaluating the impacts of policies, identifying needs and improving policy outcomes.

Investment Portfolio
The portfolio investment realization services for Domestic and Foreign Direct Investments (FDI).
Such advisory supports comprehensive due diligence services on business strategy,

investment analysis, government processes and procedures, advice on existing regulatory environment, business planning and post-operational support.

Monitoring and Evaluation Policy Assessment Analysis

This supports our clients in developing projects implementation plans and mid-term reviews, including post-implementation evaluation, taking, during implementation review, revised implementation strategies, project outcomes, impacts, and efficiencies. This service supports includes designing and

Capital Recovery - Health
Economic Management
(PRME) Report and Sector
Review

He has a Bachelor's degree with honours in Financial Management (BFinM).

He holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics (with Honours) major from the University of North Texas and a Master of Management (MBA) degree from the University of Glasgow, Scotland. His professional career includes working for the Government of Minnesota as Director of Budget and Economic Development.

He has also worked as PFM Consultant for the African Development Bank Group, through the Tunis and Kampala Banks; Government of Ethiopia, the Government of Liberia, the Government of Kenya among several others in Africa and in South America.

He has excellent professional skills and experience in public sector budgeting, accounting, financial reporting, financial analysis and audit/assessment tasks.

includes sound knowledge and implementation skills of International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS), Standard Terms Expenditure Processing (STEP), integrated Financial Management Information System (FMIS) Systems in the Public Sector, an integrated financial management information system (FMIS) System and working with several nations and in international institutions identified.

WHAT WE DO

• OUR CROSS-CUTTING SERVICE OFFERINGS

We provide cross-cutting and specialist services in areas described below:

Strategy Development

We support public sector governments in developing or revising their strategic plans. This can include strategic opportunity management, working with countries to identify new opportunities for improved efficient resource operations or unique / positive delivery that strategy-enhances efficiency and supporting best practices through cross-cutting mechanisms.

Policy Research and Development

We provide comprehensive research and development to support clients in

ASSOCIATION

Official functions in all relevant areas to support the Service partners, defining official vision and strategy. These are, prior Specialized Committees and Committees of experts. They are drawn from our pool of human resources...technical and innovative.

The associations responsible for designated positive service areas or communities of practice...including, insights and relationship management for the designated components.

Official administration and support services across all sectors.

Our firm is committed to prioritizing professional development and talent acquisition processes that allow staff to engage with the necessary skills and knowledge to deliver high-quality services. These will focus training and development, recruiting and matching, performance evaluation, and facilitate knowledge sharing and collaboration across capability and functional groups, programs and initiatives, and diversity and cultural institutions.

MANAGEMENT TEAM Members - Development Economic and Sector Director

He is a Development Economics and Project Management Specialist with a B.Sc. in Economics, French Honours College, University of Ibadan, Nigeria; a degree in mathematics from the University of Ibadan, Nigeria, and a M.B.A in Project and Strategic Management, Xavier College of Management, London and Masters in Finance with an emphasis in strategic planning, project management, management, monitoring and evaluation, and analysis for social development, application value chain development, and social enterprise development projects.

He was the Project Manager for 100% where he monitored the development and implementation of a comprehensive organisational structuring & Evaluation System that improved results, efficiency and accountability. He has also served as Project Manager for the Federal Economic Development project for Inland Communities in Nigeria, where he spearheaded addressed the critical social and developmental challenges.

plans, to determine priority investments for the funding mechanism and assessments of local authorities to plan for appropriate delivery of outcomes; the design, a training strategy and training modules for International Council experts in project management and reporting.

institutions, became Project manager for Social and Economic Development where he coordinated the strategy, management, and implementation of national projects with the Ministry of Development and Economic Planning and the National Bank of Indonesia and ensured implementation quality control and evaluation through the results management system for sustainability.

ADVISORY BOARD

ICG has an advisory board comprising [final] experts from experts who possess high-quality objective advice in areas of strategic importance, who can advise, bringing in new business, sharing their own field work experience, and working on high-level strategy with others. The ICG also closely monitor the developments and performances.

